

The D.C. Petrocollapse Conference

Surviving Peak Oil: Economic Doom or Transformation?
Culture Change and Sustainable Post-Petroleum Living!

All Souls Unitarian Church
16th and Harvard Streets, NW, Washington, D.C.
- Columbia Heights Metro Station

Saturday May 6th, 9 am - 7 pm

Documentary FILM premieres:
"The Power of Community: How Cuba Survived Peak Oil"
and "Our Synthetic Sea" (plastics in the oceans)
and MUSIC with the Peak Oilers!

featured speakers

Albert Bates, Global Ecovillage Network; author

Diana Leafe Christian, Communities Magazine

John Darnell, Ph.D., Energy advisor

Richard Heinberg, Author of Powerdown: Options and Actions for a Post Carbon World and The Party's Over

Michael Kane, Investigative reporter for fromthewilderness.com

Jan Lundberg, former oil industry analyst, founder of Auto-Free Times and culturechange.org

Jenna Orkin, Moderator, World Trade Center Environmental Organization

Mark Robinowitz, Oilempire.us; author of Permatopia, a graceful end to cheap oil

David Room, Energy Preparedness consultant

Joel Salatin, Organic farmer

For more information, email conference coordinator at conferences@culturechange.org Tel/Fax 1-215-243-3144

Register and buy a ticket online at www.petrocollapse.org or send $100 along with your name, phone no. and address to:

Culture Change P.O. Box 4347, Arcata, CA 95518 USA